Media Invite

Africa-EU Energy Partnership Forum

The Department of Energy will be hosting the AFRICA-EU Forum on 09-10 May 2012, at Cape Sun, in Cape Town, South Africa. The Forum will provide a platform to explore opportunities and potential synergies evolving from the participation of the stakeholder groups together with key political decision-makers.

The establishment of an Africa-EU Energy Partnership Forum (“Partnership Forum” or short “Forum”) – including stakeholders from the private sector, civil society and research institutions – has long been an objective of the AEEP2. So far, however, the AEEP has focused mainly on government level activities. The Forum aims to actively involve the private sector, NGOs and research, and to extend the scope of the partnership by bringing together all relevant stakeholders in order to achieve progress on the AEEP 2020 targets.

This event, which is in support of the UN declaration of 2012 as the Year of Universal Access to Sustainable Energy, is organised as follows:

Date : 09-10 May 2012

Time : 08h30 – 17h00
